Staff Present: Caroline Yahnis

Caroline Yahnis called the meeting to order at 8:35 a.m.

- I. GSYP Events and New Member Update
 - a. Events Held so Far: 22
 - b. New Members Since June: 22, 221 total GSYP members
- II. 2022 GSYP Renewal Drawings
 - a. Drew renewal incentive winners for those GSYP membership renewals. 5 renewals will get different prize packages such as a work from home package and tickets to the SkyWheel.
- III. Education Update
 - a. Looking into bringing back Tables of 10 or something similar to connect GSYP members with mentors in the area but also work on their professional development. Potential have it as a year long series with the same group the entire time. Could be a cost or sponsor depending. Look at having it after hours so that people who cannot attend during the day can be there. Less off a commitment then other leadership programs.
 - b. Will table legal talk and organizing education sessions to 2023 because schedule already filled.
- IV. Socials
 - a. Need to lock in October location. Caroline to assist. Start looking at 2023 dates and venues.
- V. Cornhole Tournament
 - a. Oct. 22, 2022 at Crooked Hammock from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m.
 - b. $50/team, $15 for spectator – Subs gets half of the ticket
 - i. Tickets include beer and buffet for players, beer for spectator
 - ii. 10% of proceeds during that time go to Subs
 - iii. Tickets will go on sale start of September
 - c. Waiting on sponsor confirmation
- VI. Substitutes for Santa Update
 - a. $16,475 current amount raised.
 - b. Blankets, pillows, pillowcases, backpacks have been donated. Carolina Limo transporting all kids

- c. Schools: Will take kids from Boys and Girls Club this year for 150 total kids
 - d. Will no longer allow for pictures to be taken of the children for privacy issues. Volunteers will need to sign a waiver.
- VII. 2023 Young Professional of the Year – Jan. 26, 2023
- a. Looking into the Train Depot or potentially the Art Museum as the venue.

Meeting adjourned at 9:20 a.m.
